

DECLARATION OF CHARACTER

During the 54 days from Thanksgiving Day (November 25, 2021) to MLK Day (January 17, 2022), I will embrace a season of compassion in how I live and interact with others. I will commit to performing acts of kindness, speaking words of life, avoiding violence, seeking peace, demonstrating generosity, and putting the needs and interests of others above my own. By doing so, I declare that that the content of my character is the standard by which I will measure my life and the lives of others.
